This chart will monitor your behaviour over the next half term. You should aim to get greens every lesson.

Green means that you are trying hard and working your best.

Amber means you are almost there but need to try harder.

Red means you have not followed the class rules.

Name..............................................  Class.................................